

WPA GUIDELINES FOR NOMINEES AND CANDIDATES

1. A prospective nominee shall not commence any election promotional activity before the Chair of the Nominations Committee formally calls for nominations (nine months before the corresponding General Assembly).
2. A nominee or candidate shall not offer a benefit to another person as an inducement or reward to affect his/her candidacy or get a third person to do so.
3. A nominee or candidate shall not solicit or accept a benefit from another person as an inducement or reward to affect his/her candidacy.
4. A nominee or candidate must not publish any false or misleading statement of facts for the purpose of promoting his/her candidacy or get a third person to do so.
5. A nominee or candidate must obtain prior written consent from a person or organization before using that person or organization indication of support. Oral consent is not sufficient.
6. A nominee or candidate who is a WPA officer shall not use logistic resources assigned for official functions by WPA to promote his/her candidacy.
7. A nominee or candidate must not use false or misleading statements about a particular candidate for the purpose of promoting or prejudicing the election of the candidate or get a third person to do so.
